About the Ball

THE 2027 ALABAMA BALLET POINTE BALL

The 2027 Pointe Ball will honor Janet Rooney. We invite you to celebrate with us on Saturday, February 20, 2027, at the Alabama Ballet Pointe Ball, our annual fundraising gala featuring dinner, dancing, and a special performance by Alabama Ballet, as we celebrate 45 years of Alabama Ballet.

This signature philanthropic evening raises vital funds for the Ballet while offering guests a memorable opportunity to celebrate the Company, its extraordinary dancers, and the generous patrons whose commitment makes our work possible. Proceeds from the Pointe Ball benefit the Alabama Ballet Company, the Alabama Ballet School, and our education and outreach programs that serve communities across the state.

The evening will begin at 6:00 p.m. at Haven with cocktails, followed by a performance by Alabama Ballet company dancers. Approximately 300 guests, including Artistic Director Christopher Stuart, company members, Alabama Ballet School parents, board members, and friends, will gather for this elegant celebration of artistry and community.

We are especially grateful to our 2027 Pointe Ball Committee Co-Chairs, Elizabeth Lee, Brandeis Short, and Anna McClendon, along with Advisor Ray Jordan, for bringing their creativity and vision to this special evening, and to our Corporate Chairs, J. Johnson and Warren Giardina, and friends of Alabama Ballet for their leadership and support.

By investing in the arts, you strengthen the cultural fabric of our community. The success of the Alabama Ballet Pointe Ball empowers us to fulfill our mission of changing lives through dance: promoting and fostering the development of classical and contemporary ballet through exceptional performances, dance education, and meaningful community outreach.

About Alabama Ballet

STATE OF ALABAMA BALLET, INC.

Alabama Ballet engages, inspires, and educates audiences through world-class performances and exceptional educational programming. Established in 1981, Alabama Ballet is Birmingham's second-largest performing arts organization and the state's premier professional ballet company.

The Company is composed of 25 professional dancers, 6 Apprentices, and 7 Studio Company members from across the United States and abroad, along with 10 full-time and 10 part-time staff, and contributes an estimated $7.2 million annually to Alabama's economy. Under the artistic direction of Christopher Stuart, Alabama Ballet presents five major productions each season and tours throughout the state. The Alabama Ballet Center for Dance, located on 1st Avenue South, is a 21,500-square-foot facility housing six studios, administrative and artistic offices, a costume shop, storage facilities, and the Alabama Ballet School.

The Alabama Ballet School provides the highest quality training for aspiring artists of all ages. The curriculum is student-centered and serves students who dance recreationally as well as those preparing for professional careers. The School operates year-round, offering classes for ages four through adult, and provides need-based scholarships and financial aid for students enrolled in the School and summer programs.

Through performances, education, and outreach, Alabama Ballet cultivates Alabama's artistic talent and strengthens community support for the arts. Each year, Alabama Ballet reaches more than 15,000 youth statewide through meaningful and accessible educational initiatives such as free educational performances, youth casting opportunities, Dance Discovery Workshops, and First Look performances.

Alabama Ballet is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
